Synopsis

Set in the East Village of New York City, Rent School Edition is about falling in love, finding your voice and living for today. Winner of the Tony Award for Best Musical and the Pulitzer Prize for Drama, it has become a pop cultural phenomenon with songs that rock and a story that resonates with audiences of all ages.

Based loosely on Puccini's La Boheme, Rent School Edition follows a year in the life of a group of impoverished young artists and musicians struggling to survive and create in New York's Lower East Side, under the shadow of HIV/AIDS. The physical and emotional complications of the disease pervade the lives of Roger, Mimi, Tom and Angel. Maureen deals with her chronic infidelity through performance art; her partner, Joanne, wonders if their relationship is worth the trouble. Benny has sold out his Bohemian ideals in exchange for a hefty income and is on the outs with his former friends. Mark, an aspiring filmmaker, feels like an outsider to life in general. How these young bohemians negotiate their dreams, loves and conflicts provides the narrative thread to this groundbreaking musical.

COMMITMENT:

Commitment and strong attendance are essential when taking part in a theatrical production. Every rehearsal is a step toward creating something meaningful together, and each cast and crew member plays a vital role in that journey. Theatre is a collaborative art form that thrives on trust, consistency, and teamwork — and being present and prepared is one of the most important ways to support your fellow performers and the overall success of the show.

We do understand that illness or unexpected circumstances can occur throughout the school year, and we are always compassionate in those situations. However, please note that more than three absences may result in adjustments to staging, including being removed from certain scenes or songs. This is not a punishment, but rather a necessary step to ensure that the flow of the production remains strong and that the hard work of the full ensemble is protected.

Thank you for your understanding and for being part of a team that values reliability, respect, and the joy of creating theatre together.
